

Dear Academia,

The call for applications for the third edition of the Special Award 'I include gender in research' for the highest-rated master's and doctoral theses incorporating a gender perspective in the area of research is open until 15 November 2024.

As part of the EU Horizon 2020 project Modifying Institutions by Developing Gender Equality Plans (MINDtheGEPs) implemented at the University of Gdansk, a number of activities are being undertaken to implement gender equality policies at our university, as set out in the Gender Equality Plan for 2022- 2023 and 2024 -2028

Gender Equality Plan for the University of Gdansk. Equality measures for the years 2022-2023.

One of the project's activities is the awarding of annual prizes for the highest-rated master thesis and doctoral dissertation integrating gender into scientific research. We accept applications for the award for master's thesis and doctoral dissertations in two areas: the social sciences and humanities and STEM sciences. In this year's edition of the contest, the Award may be applied for by those who were awarded either a master's degree or a doctoral degree at the University of Gdańsk in 2023 or 2024.

The prizes in 2024 will amount to PLN 2400 for master's thesis and PLN 3600 for doctoral thesis. Detailed rules of the competition are given in the Regulations of the "I include gender in research".

Applicants are invited to submit their master and doctoral theses by 15 November 2024.
